Winter Class
Cycle B Spring

Spring 2022

We'll meet again.

These are some of the areas of learning and activities your child will be focusing on this term:

Study language of persuasive argument and balanced discussions when considering the evacuation of children.

Discover how various technological advances, such as weapons and aircraft, influenced events during the war.

Examine photographs and eye witness accounts.

Discover what WWII was like for children in Hurstbourne Tarrant.

Use TinkerCad to produce a 3D design for an Anderson Shelter.

Create a wartime child's toy from scraps of fabric

Please note: we will be looking at carefully selected scenes from the films: Narnia, Goodnight Mr Tom, The Dambusters and Battle of Britain. If you have any concerns about this please let us know.

Evacuee Day: Join together for a wartime meal, experience life as an evacuee, learn typical playground games and WWII morale boosting songs, which will be shared with our work on our outcome day:

Examine work undertaken during the war and the contribution to the war effort.

Create a time line for WWII

Find out about rationing.

Create own identity card

Use Movie Maker to produce an interview with an evacuee

Consider the feelings of different people at the outbreak of war.

Study WWII children's literature including Goodnight Mr Tom.

Analyse strengths and weaknesses of solving problems that occurred during WWII.

Examine artefacts and pictures to develop understanding of life during the war.

Find out about some of the equipment, weapons and technology developed and used during the war.

Design, build and evaluate a model of an Anderson Shelter

We'll meet again.
